

Alcoscan – Breath Alcohol Tester AL4000

ALCOSCANA AL4000 is a coin-operated breath alcohol tester which is suitable for bars, restaurants, nightclubs, casinos or anywhere alcohol is served. The unit offers law enforcement level accuracy, slim design and very simple operation allowing people to test their own breath alcohol levels.

The AL4000 uses an advanced platinum electrochemical sensor (Fuel cell) which provides breath sample linearity and longer calibration intervals.
